The Month of August (Last Chance): TESCO Chard – Bag for Life

Please continue voting for the WATCH Project with your 'Bag for Life' tokens at Tesco Chard until August 1st. Don't forget to ask a cashier!

2nd August: Members Meeting

We're nothing without our members, so feel free to come along and join in at today's meeting. Friendly discussion, big ideas, and hands raised to back your shenanigans up are welcome!

2nd August: Danielle Wrench – Otterhead Lakes Chat @ 2pm

Interim Nature & Wellbeing Assistant, Danielle, will be coming in at 2pm to talk about us about going out as a group to Otterhead Lakes in the near future. All helps our health and wellbeing! 😊

9th August: Annual General Meeting @ 11am

The AGM is our yearly celebration of the members and all we've achieved over the last twelve months! The project will be open to the public temporarily while it's being held (so expect to see some familiar faces there) and it will take place at the Rugby Club during our usual Thursday hours. We're aiming to finish the meeting at lunchtime, if you're not a fan of crowds (no promises) and WATCH will continue to run as normal until 4pm.

A free ploughman's lunch will also be available on the day too, so please book your noms on the front desk now to avoid hungry disappointment later.

Keep Fit (Floating Date)

I won't commit a day to ink, but if Richard's legs are in need of a good stretch over the next month, he may surprise us with a healthy walk, and if you're feeling brave, we may try the Zumba DVD again!

Talking Café (Every Monday)

It's not exactly WATCH affiliated, but if you're looking for some company and cups tea during the start of the week, Somerset Village & Community Agents are holding a weekly Talking Café as of Monday 30th July at the Chard Baptist Church between 10.30-13.00.

Useful Twitter links!

South Somerset Mind now have a twitter page, you can follow them via @SSomersetMind for all the latest news.

(You can follow WATCH too @TheWATCHProject but we don't check it half as much as we should!)

Tea & Talk – Every Thursday from 2pm

Please come along and have a chat with a cup of tea, every Thursday from 2pm. If you have any ideas you would like to raise (particularly about the art table) tea and talk is a good time to bring them up!

Party in the Park (Update)

We had a stand at Party in the Park on Sunday 22nd July in Chard. We had information on the project, some woodworking items and, most successfully, a tombola. Sarah L, Donna and Patrick were there for the whole day in addition to setting up and taking down the stall. Many thanks to them, Richard and Denise, and the various other members that visited.

The woodworking sale raised £39.10, and the tombola raised £72.30! Congratulations to all involved in the rather hot day. 😊

Another Round of Applause

... This time for Jonathan and family for allowing us to visit Folly Farm (watch this space for more dates) and the Church of St Nicholas in Combe St Nicholas for a recent donation to the project!
